

Incentive Based Volunteering in Azraq Camp

May 2024

Basic Needs and Livelihoods Working Group

The incentive-based volunteer scheme (IBV) aimed at providing refugees living in Azraq Refugee Camp with basic means to enhance their resilience and self-reliance due to the lack of livelihood means in the camp. The Incentive- Based Volunteering Scheme (IBV) has been a key aspect of refugee participation in the delivery of humanitarian assistance and other services in the camp. The factsheet contains information shared by the different humanitarian actors engaged in the IBV scheme.

19,948 Total number of applicants since 2014

15,942 Camp Population (18-59)

11,748 Total number of applicants inside camp

31 Total number of new applicants

1,493 Total number of beneficiaries currently engaged with IBV program

107 Total number of IBV cases rotated during May representing 7% of total engaged with IBV

1,401 Total Number of vulnerable applicants since 2014

Feedback by community members:

- Community members requested NGOs to increase IBV opportunities in response to the decrease in the amount of monthly food assistance.
- In light of lack of IBV opportunities, community members stated that some refugees leave the camp to look for job opportunities in farms.
- Community members asked to prioritize elderly and PwDs for IBV opportunities.
