UPDATE ON ACHIEVEMENTS

Operational Context

A total of 1,050 South Sudanese new arrivals are reported this week. The situation of South Sudanese in Khartoum remains calm. Following a visit by Commissioner Sinnari of the Commission for Voluntary and Humanitarian Work to White Nile State on 5th November, planning for the voluntary relocation of individuals from Jabarona (Khartoum) is ongoing.

Overcrowding in White Nile State continues to worsen. An estimated 1,274 households are currently living in reception centers in White Nile State, due to a lack of space in the existing four relocation sites. Insecurity continues to impede access and assistance in South Kordofan.
