Also during the reporting period, an official inauguration ceremony organized by the Ministry of Interior on 8 January opened the Reception Centre 2 in the presence of the President and Minister of Interior of Puntland.

The year 2016 has begun with the number of people fleeing from the Yemen War slowly beginning to rise compared to the number of arrivals in December 2015: four boats with a total of 296 individuals have arrived in the first half of January, compared to the 187 total for the whole of December.

It is also being reported that some Yemenis who have previously arrived in Somalia (Bossaso in particular) still intend to return to Yemen, and particularly Aden, which has been recovered by the coalition forces.

A total of 179 Somali returnees that have arrived during the reporting period have received Onward Transportation Assistance (OTA) to reach their places of origin in South/Central Somalia. A number of third-country nationals received OTAs to return to their places of origin.

Norwegian Refugee Council (NRC) distributed cash grants to 508 households (428 Yemeni refugees and 80 Somali returnees) currently staying in Bossaso, Gardo, Garowe and Badhan.

SRCS continues to provide free calls for the new arrivals to enable them communicate with their families and relatives in Yemen as well as in Somalia.

Transportation of new arrivals from the port to the Reception Centre is provided by IOM.

SOMALILAND

The 2 January arrival carried 27 individuals (17 households), 12 Yemenis and 15 Somalis. They had departed from Malaa port (Aden) at 5:30 pm on 1 January 2016 on the 'Ismailia' and reached the Somaliland coast at 1:30 pm on 2 January, after a crossing lasting 21 hours. The new arrivals reported that they left Yemen due to fighting raging in Aden. The new arrivals reported that they had paid 100 USD for their journey and that they had not faced any kind of abuse during their travel.

The boat that arrived on the 7 January carried 14 new arrivals (five households), 12 Yemenis and two Somalis. Most of these new arrivals had been students in Aden. They reported that they waited at Aden port for two days before securing a place on the vessel. They departed at 1:00 PM on 6 January on the 'Noba 1' and reached the Somaliland coast at 11:15 PM on 7 January 2016, for a journey lasting 23 hours. These new arrivals reported that they had paid 150 USD for their journey and were provided with food and water.

The boat that made landing on 16 January carried 21 new arrivals (8 households), 14 Yemenis and seven Somalis. They had departed from Malaa port (Aden) at 5:30 PM on 15th January 2016 on the 'Al-Mubarak' and reached Somaliland at 12:30 PM on 16 January 2016, for a crossing lasting 20 hours. The new arrivals reported that they paid 100 USD for their journey. Most of the new arrivals departed from the reception center on the same day to reach Hargeisa, except for two Yemenis who could not afford the transportation cost, who were given non-food items (NFIs). All the new arrivals were found to be in good physical and mental condition except for one older woman, who was exhausted by the long travel but was otherwise in good medical condition.

In all three cases, no cases of armed, physical violence or GBV were reported, apart from the widespread difficulty of the situation in Yemen. Several agencies -including DRC, IOM, Somali Red Crescent Society (SRCS), government agencies and the immigration office- were at the port to receive the new arrivals. As per procedure, they were welcomed, provided with drinking water and transported by DRC to the Reception Centre, where they were given water and food. Most of the new arrivals departed from the reception center on the same day.
