Agenda item	Discussion	Action points
Presentation of AWO SGBV assessment	The AWO Arab Women Organization conducted an assessment on Refugee women access to SGBV services. (See attached presentation and documents). The group noted that some of the recommendations made by AWO are in progress and part of the SGBV SWG strategy. Of particular concern are the findings around sexual exploitation and abuse, a follow up discussion on this is required. SGBV SWG members have one week to review the assessment and send suggestions to AWO.	UNFPA/UNHCR to share AWO presentation and documents Members to send back comments to AWO within one week
Update on Azraq	Updates were given on the rate of arrivals and places of origins of refugees. IMC safe reception area for female headed households and single women is receiving about 10% of the overall arrivals and they are following up with cases. Single women and female headed households are primarily concerned	Raise the issue with camp management

	about needing to access bailout to rejoin families either in Zaatari or in other areas of Jordan. They are worried about the reaction of their families if they are not quickly reunited. Women in this situation should be given priority but also go through protection assessments once the bailout system starts. Other concerns raised from actors in Azraq are the need to update and continue to train on the referral pathways, and improve information sharing among organizations. It is sometimes difficult to follow up with cases, as it seems people are moving shelters. Discussions and follow up is continuing on the SGBV recommendations. A WASH survey will be conducted to understand specific concerns around WASH facilities design in relation to SGBV.	UNHCR/UNFPA to update referral pathway
Updates from Field SWGs, TFs, and Focal Points	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Zaatari field SGBV SWG: CP and SGBV have officially split and are finalizing ToR. - Cash: a TF was created to look at gender-sensitive cash programs, including from a SGBV perspective. - Wash: work with the Azraq teams continues (see above).
AOB	The material from the Amani campaign are ready, a list of material will be shared so that organizations can order what they need from the different products. The AWO produced two more brochures under the Amani campaign, other members interested in producing materials can get in touch with the SOP steering committee.	UNHCR/UNFPA to share list of materials Members to order materials they need
