

NOVEMBER HIGHLIGHTS:

In November UNDP provided tailored support to establish and scale-up 20 small and medium-sized businesses owned by Syrian men and women in both camp and non-camp settings. In addition around 230 Syrian refugees, IDPs and members of the host community benefited in November from vocational trainings in the areas of sewing, hairdressing, electrician training, computer-skills trainings and as well as from language trainings in English and Kurdish.

NEEDS ANALYSIS:

While continued humanitarian relief is needed for the most vulnerable refugees, IOM is also strongly emphasizing the need for enhancing beneficiaries' self-reliance, by providing them with income generation activities and training to increase their employability.

IRAQ RESPONSE INDICATORS: November 2015

Planned response based on full funding of 3RP for an expected direct beneficiary population of 250,000 Syrian refugees and 1.5 million members of impacted local communities by end-2015. There are currently 245,134 Syrian refugees registered by UNHCR (39% in camps and 61% out of camps).
