

People in acute need	1.5M persons	People targeted	1.1M persons
People in chronic need	2.5M persons	Budget request	USD 59.4M

2018 PRIORITIES

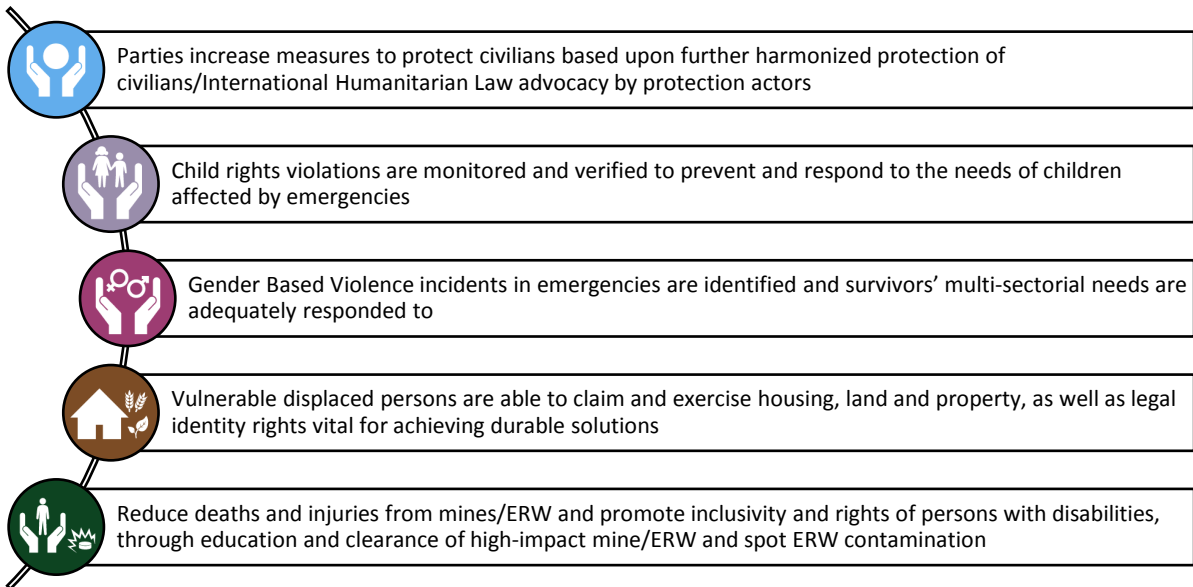

Map 1 Severity scale of protection needs. Source: Humanitarian Needs Overview 2018

Priority provinces:
Kandahar, Faryab, Kunduz, Nangarhar, Herat, Farah, Helmand, Uruzgan, Badakhshan and Kabul
Hard to reach areas/districts are prioritized for the response within provinces.

Protection Cluster Objectives

Protection Cluster activities in 2018

70,000 refugee returnees will receive cash grant and additional services at Encashment Centres
7,000 undocumented returnees will be prioritised for the assistance to persons with specific needs
180,000 undocumented returnees will receive post-arrival assistance

21,054 unaccompanied and separate children will be registered upon identification and provided with family tracing and reunification services
23,958 affected children will be enrolled into child protection case management and referred to relevant service providers
91,905 children and parents will receive psychosocial support
3,383 children victims of violence will receive specialized assistance and care 3,956 child protection in emergencies specialists will be trained
1,472 children will receive targeted assistance to address child recruitment 114,308 people will be sensitized on child protection issues in communities

75,724 people in communities will be sensitized on Gender Based Violence (GBV) through community dialogues and GBV nationwide assessments
24,953 survivors of GBV will receive services and support, including medical, psychosocial, legal and material assistance, as well as safe spaces where needed
14,880 women and girls of reproductive age will receive a dignity kit
7,514 health workers will be trained on GBV response

14,800 persons will receive legal assistance and counselling for Housing, Land and property (HLP) cases
19,200 persons will be provided legal assistance and counselling for legal civil documentation (LCD) cases 20 communities will be profiled for the purpose of developing a durable solutions plan 30 housing and property damage assessments planned
45,000 persons will be sensitized on their HLP rights
450 HLP rights training to displaced persons planned
900 duty bearers will be trained on HLP and LCD

1,103,348 conflict affected persons will be provided Mine/Explosive Remnants of War (ERW) Risk Education
198,242 people will benefit from Mine/ERW Surveyance and Explosive Ordnance Disposal (EOD) including response to hotline calls
87,705 persons living in contaminated areas will benefit from ERW and unexploded ordnance (UXO) clearance
203,916 persons will be trained on rights of victims