

Protection Sector Working Group

David Karp,
UNHCR Assistant Representative Protection

Protection: Priority Interventions

Priority interventions in the protection response will promote:

- peaceful coexistence with the host community,
- child protection with strong SGBV and education components,
- the civilian character of asylum, including the screening of combatants,
- Enhanced registration processes
- basic and lifesaving services for new arrivals,
- durable solutions with a focus of self-reliance, and freedom of movement, and addressing the needs of older persons, and those with disabilities.
- Border monitoring expansion, including via a community-based approach, focus on information and stabilization for new arrivals, and exchange of information for registration in safety and dignity.
- greater access to rights, as pledged by the Government of Ethiopia, including the out-of-camp option.

Objective 1: Strengthen the protection of children

- 10,000 best interest assessment conducted
- 36 community based committees/groups dedicated to child protection issues
- 24,795 children receiving specialized CP services (individual case management)

Objective 2: Reduce the risk of SGBV and improve the quality of response

- 76 community based committees/groups working on SGBV prevention and response
- 3,980 women/girls who received female hygiene kits (dignity kits)

Objective 3: Strengthen and expand community mobilization

- 8 camps with functional community based complaint mechanisms
- 160 refugee women in leadership positions

Objective 4: Improve or maintain quality of registration and profiling including civil registration and civil status determination

- 35,000 refugees registered on an individual basis with minimum set of data required
- 15,000 children issued with birth certificates
- 35,000 refugees transported in a dignified manner

Objective 5: Strengthen services for persons with specific needs and ensure access to legal assistance and remedies for the refugee population

- 18,281 people living with specific needs receiving support
- 102,600 refugees receiving legal assistance

Thank you!

