ESWG chair provided a quick introduction and wrap-up of the last discussion around ESP:
In Dec 2018, a small group of ESWG discussed how the humanitarian response could be aligned with the Education Strategic Plan 2018-2022 (ESP). For this purpose, the sector has made a mapping of what educational forums are taking place in Jordan and how they can be coordinated and harmonised.
	Donor's group platform: discuss the education financing and planning. ESP-TWG: Ministry with support of UNESCO to operationalize the Technical Working Groups where MOE, UN and NGOs will discuss technical issues. ESWG: UN & NGO: address and discuss education programming
MOE	provided the update on the coordination structure to the ESP
techni	cal working group and timeline of rollout:
	The ESP lunched in March 2018.
>	MOE working on finalizing 2018 accomplishment report, stating the achievement in terms of setting targets.
>	Prepare to rollout of ESP comprised in a high level steering committee formed by a decision of prime minister and set of several ministers.
~	 TOR of the high level steering committee : ✓ Meet biannually to assess the progress over the pass period. In an effort to streamline different coordination structure we have, agreed that in May-Nov review meetings with the development partners, this will eventually replace the need for education donor group.
>	 On the second level, there is planning policy and coordination unit, comprised the planning directorate and development coordination unit TOR of the planning Policy Committee : ✓ Collecting the inputs from the technical working groups on the accomplishments and activities in regards ESP, in order to report for high level committee.
•	On the third level, there will be the Technical Working Groups, in rolling out for TWG's MOE needs two type of support : technical support and administrative support on how to operate the six working groups (who post for a meeting, organize the work around that, manage the deliverable and output) for that it need :
